Municipal Election

Due to the potential of council being in a lame duck position in the months of August, September, October and November in an election year, limiting their ability to make decisions on items described in section 275 of the Municipal Act, meetings may be ‘tentatively’ scheduled in the month of August to ensure business continuity during this period. A minimum of two weeks void of regular meetings will be maintained. In an election year, immediately following the election, Council shall only meet as deemed necessary until the new term of Council takes effect.
