

So You Want to Run for Council?

Attend a FREE Candidate Information Workshop

Thursday, June 9, 2022

6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Collingwood Legion – Normandy Room
490 Ontario Street, Collingwood

This Workshop will give you an understanding of Council's roles and responsibilities and provide an overview of the significant changes coming to local government.

Who should attend:

- Registered and potential candidates
- Spouse or partner of a candidate
- Anyone interested in learning more about how local government works.

Speaker: Fred Dean is a lawyer, retired from practice, who knows the ins and outs of municipal government; giving civic leaders the tools to make effective decisions and engage citizens in the process. Insightful and entertaining, Fred has shared his experience and expertise with municipal Councils and notable organizations with high praise, and has been a facilitator training members of council and heads of council on behalf of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario since 2002.

Topics will include:

- Municipal powers
- Roles and responsibilities
- The public's role in local government
- Impact on family life
- The difference between governance and administration
- Municipal conflict of interest and other personal responsibility

This is a free event. Pre-registration is recommended as space is limited to 250 attendees
